

Cargo Rates International LLC - An Introduction to our company.

Who: Cargo Rates International is a young dynamic International Freight Forwarder and Non Vessel Owning Common Carrier. Cargo Rates International started in Seattle, Washington, USA. in 2006. We have established customers and relationships worldwide.

What we do: . We help our clients maintain a competitive advantage by offering a wide range of customized transportation services. We have very competitive pricing, excellent customer service and deep experience managing diverse supply chains of varying complexity for companies of all sizes. We coordinate, Air, Ocean, Land, Rail, Imports and Exports worldwide.

How: We are experienced, driven, relationship oriented, and technologically advanced. We pride ourselves on being services oriented and our ability to solve problems based on industry experience in all aspects of International Logistics. We tailor our services around the needs of the customer. We accomplish successful long term business relationships by listening to our customers needs and developing service oriented vendor partnerships.

Where: We are Based in Seattle, Washington. United States of America. We handle customers and cargo worldwide.

Why: Because “Your Shipping business means the World to us” We believe in gaining customers the old fashioned way; one at a time and by developing a relationship. We deliver a sense of urgency, customer service, competitive pricing and experience. Why – because we care.

When: Give us a try today !!

Cargo Rates International LLC can assist you on how to get the best value for your transportation dollar. Our reputation is built on providing competitive and confidential logistics services. Choose Cargo Rates International LLC today. Give us a try !